25. Holding of Annual General Meeting:

- 25.1. Subject to paragraph 2 of this Article 25 and subject always as provided by the Act, the company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting, in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it.

27. Restriction on voting: For so long as the company holds any shares as treasury shares, or any subsidiary of the company holds shares in the company, then the company or the subsidiary (as the case may be) shall not exercise any voting rights in respect of the shares.

28. Unanimous Written Resolutions and Majority Written Resolutions: A unanimous written resolution and a majority written resolution may be passed by members subject to and in accordance with Section 193 and Section 194 respectively of the Act.

- 29.1. in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in relation to their acts or omissions while acting in such office, in which judgment is given in their favour or in which they are acquitted; or
- 29.2. in connection with any proceedings or application referred to in, or under, Sections 233 or 234 of the Act in which relief is granted to them by the court.

30. Accounts of each Class:

- 30.1. A separate account shall be kept for each Class.
- 30.2. The funds necessary to meet the amounts needed for the business of each Class, including but not limited to the amounts needed for known or expected claims, expenses, reinsurance premiums, other outgoings and solvency requirements, shall be provided by contributions of the insureds with entries of insurance entered in that Class in accordance with the Class Rules.
- 30.3. The Class funds may be used for the payment of claims, expenses, reinsurance premiums and other outgoings which, in the opinion of the directors, fall upon that Class. The directors shall determine what proportions of the general expenses of the management, company debts, liabilities and solvency capital requirements are to be borne between the different Classes, and the separate accounts of the respective Classes shall be debited accordingly.
- 30.4. All payments to or by the company in respect of any business of any Class shall be due or made by the company but shall be credited or charged to, as the case may be, the separate account for such Class.

All insurances underwritten on behalf of any Class shall be underwritten in the name of the company but shall relate to one or more of the Classes, and no person shall, in respect of insurance relating to any one Class, be liable to pay or entitled to receive any money in respect of the insurance to or from any other Class.
- 30.6. - 30.7. Class funds may be invested in such investments as the directors consider appropriate and such funds may be used for such purposes as the directors determine.
- 30.8. Except in the event of the insolvency of the company, the assets of each Class shall be kept separate from those of the other Classes and shall be available only for the use of that Class for the benefit of the members in that Class.

30.9. Upon the insolvency of the company, all assets of all Classes shall be pooled and nothing in these Articles is intended to create a trust in favour of any party.

30.10. If the amount realised by premiums from fixed premium non-member business shall be more than sufficient to meet the claims, expenses, outgoings and liabilities of fixed premium non-member business then the whole or any proportion of the surplus may be applied for the purposes of the Classes in such proportions and in such manner as the directors may determine in their absolute discretion. For the purposes of this Article 30.10, fixed premium non-member business means where the company accepts the entry of insurance on terms that the person insured is liable to pay a fixed premium and on terms that the person insured shall not be admitted as a member of NorthStandard UK in respect of that entry.
