NOTES ON COMPLETION OF FORM RBN2A

These notes should be read in conjunction with the relevant legislation.

General This form must be completed in full and in accordance with the following notes. Where "not applicable", "nil" or "none" is appropriate, please state. Where the space provided on Form RBN2A is considered inadequate, the information should be presented on a continuation sheet in the same format as the relevant section in the form. The use of a continuation sheet must be so indicated in the relevant section.

note one The business name must accord with the particulars contained in documentation already delivered to the CRO.

note two Form RBN2A must be completed whenever any change is made or occurs in the particulars registered under section 4 Registration of Business Names Act 1963, i.e.

- (1) Business name, including, in the case of the proprietor of a newspaper, the title of the newspaper. Pursuant to section 14 Registration of Business Names Act 1963, the Minister for Business, Enterprise and Innovation has the power to refuse to permit the registration of any name which in his/her opinion is undesirable.
- (2) Nature of business.
- (3) Principal place of business.
- (4) Other name(s) under which the business is conducted.
- (5) Change in partners or their details, including, in the case of a corporate body, the name and registered office address in the State.

Where there are new partners, complete overleaf also.

note three This section must be completed by the person who is presenting the form to the Registrar. This may either be one of the partners or a person on behalf of the partners. The DX number and exchange details may be given by those who are members of a document exchange service.

note four Insert the full name (initials will not suffice) and the usual residential address. Where the partner is a corporate body, the corporate name and registered address must be stated.

Pursuant to section 2 Registration of Business Names Act 1963, forename(s) includes any Christian name(s), and surname, in the case of a person usually known by a title different from his/her surname, means that title.

References to a former forename or surname do not include: (1) in the case of any person usually known by a title different from his/her surname, the name by he/she was known previous to the adoption of, or succession to, the title; or (2) in the case of any person, a former forename or surname where that name or surname has been changed or disused for a period of not less than 20 years; or (3) in the case of a married woman, the name or surname by which she was known previous to the marriage.

note five Applicable only to individuals.

note six Where applicable, insert company name and number.

note seven This statement must in all cases be signed by either: (1) all the individuals who are partners and a director or secretary of all bodies corporate which are partners, or, (2) some individual who is a partner, or a director or secretary of some body corporate which is a partner; and in a case to which (2) applies, this must be verified by a statutory declaration made by the signatory. Where the statement is signed by a director/secretary of a body corporate which is a partner, this must be stated.

When signed, this statement must be sent by post or delivered to the Registrar within one month after any change in any of the particulars registered.
