NOTES ON COMPLETION OF FORM RBN3

These notes should be read in conjunction with the relevant legislation.

General This form must be completed in full and in accordance with the following notes. Where the space provided on Form RBN3 is considered inadequate, the information should be presented on a continuation sheet in the same format as the relevant section in the form. The use of a continuation sheet must be so indicated in the relevant section.

note one The business name must accord with the particulars contained in documentation already delivered to the Companies Registration Office.

note two The principal place of business must accord with the particulars contained in documentation already delivered to the Companies Registration Office.

note three This form must, in the case of an individual be signed by the individual, except in the case of the death of an individual when it must be signed by the personal representative of the deceased; in the case of a firm by the persons who were partners of the firm at the time when it ceased to carry on business under the business name; and in the case of a body corporate by a director or a liquidator.

Where the statement is signed by a director/secretary of a body corporate which is a partner, this must be stated. For the purposes of the Registration of Business Names Act 1963, "director" includes a member of the managing body of a body corporate. (Section 2(1) RBN Act 1963).

This form must be sent by post, or delivered to the Registrar of Business Names within three months after the business has ceased to be carried on under the business name.

note four This section must be completed by the person who is presenting the form to the Registrar. This may be the individual, firm or body corporate or a person on his/her/its behalf. The DX number and exchange details may be given by those who are members of a document exchange service.
